

In this instalment of Vitamin C, we're thrilled to share Breakfast Club of Canada's revised guiding principles, which we hope will inspire you in propelling your breakfast program forward. You will also find several articles related to the upcoming Nutrition Month in March: • Delicious recipes for Brazilian cheese bread and wholesome whole-wheat waffles

- School stories from across the country that demonstrate the positive impacts of breakfast • Inspiring ideas from school breakfast program teams.
- Enjoy reading, and be sure to make your extra day this month count!

Have a look at our new Guiding Principles

News

This year, the Club undertook to revise all its Guiding Practices, and the exercise gave birth to the brand new Guiding Principles! The objective for the Club's Guiding Principles is to offer a shared vision for breakfast programs to our team and to our partners, whether they be schools, community organizations, philanthropic or government partners. These principles act as a compass that indicate where to concentrate our efforts in order to progress, together, towards the best possible school breakfast program. It also embodies the values we want to apply in our work and that enable us to answer the needs and realities of each and every school community we support. Hence, with our schools, community organizations, philanthropic or government partners, we work daily to implement the shared vision of a school breakfast program.

Click below to learn more about these guiding principles.

See the document

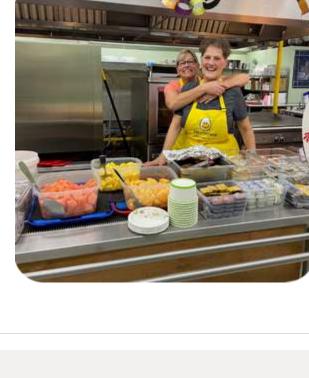

YOUR STORY

For the past several years, Jacques Bisson has embodied the spirit of volunteer and community service through his involvement with the breakfast program at Laflèche School in Shawinigan, Quebec. In his role as head volunteer, he is passionate about making sure students get a healthy start to their day and is constantly coming up with new ideas for boosting the nutritional value of the meals he prepares. He is a role model for everyone around him young and old alike.

Jacques Bisson: Getting Every Morning Off to a Nutritious Start

board they put up outside the cafeteria to encourage students to share their meal ideas helps foster a sense of community. The program's menu boasts a diverse array of hot and cold foods, with an emphasis on fresh fruits and vegetables. Tracy and Carol's commitment to nutrition not only supports access to nourishing meals but also promotes overall wellbeing. NUTRITIOUS IDEAS

Ontario, is a warm and welcoming one, thanks to the dynamic duo of Tracy and Carol. The suggestion simple steps below to whip up a batch, and have fun

Your Next Favourite Waffle Recipe

Easy to prepare and full of flavour, these wholewheat waffles are a true breakfast treat. Follow the nutrition student who is currently interning at BCC, introduced us to this specialty from her native country. Cheesy and soft on the inside and crusty on

See the recipe

the outside, pão de queijo is definitely something you'll want to try in your breakfast program!

Kirstin Berrington

February: Black History Month

lens of food this month!

March: Nutrition Month

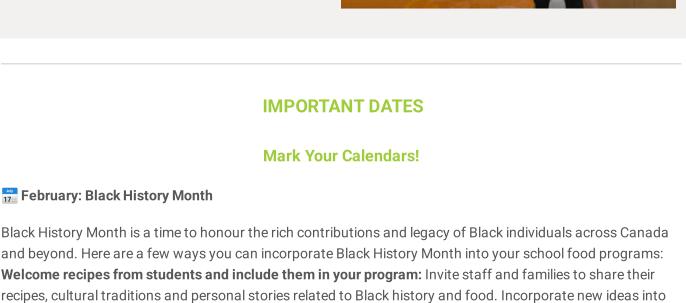

benefits of starting the day right.

highlight nutrition this month.

mission we fulfill.

Watch the video

you all!

Celebrate the power of nutrition throughout March! Nutrition Month is our chance to collectively promote the Visit the Dietitians of Canada website for updates on the 2024 advocacy campaign and ideas on how to Share your breakfast success and nutrition stories here to inspire other programs across Canada.

Try out a new recipe from Breakfast Club of Canada's recipe book.

your menu planning all year round to foster stronger connections, expand students' palates and broaden understanding within your school community. Strengthen and educate your school community through the

INFO CLUB Awareness Campaign

> WE BELIEVE IN BREAKFAST.

From February to March, the Club will launch a major advertising campaign on television, online and social media. The main objective is to strengthen our national presence and raise public awareness of the essential commitment to nurturing children's potential. Your voice is unique and important. Share this campaign with your

As we conclude this issue of Vitamin C, we'd like to emphasize the importance of preparing for the months ahead.

much for our students feel special and valued.

A special signature will be added to our logo during this period: "A better network and help spread the word about our programs and the Club!

start for every child." This is intended to clearly articulate our Nudge, Nudge... Start Planning!

A better start for every child.

135-G De Mortagne, Blvd Boucherville QC, J4B 6G4 info@breakfastclubcanada.org

Unsubscribe

You received this email because you work at Breakfast Club of Canada.

Privacy Policy

Breakfast Club of Canada © All Rights Reserved, 2024.

